THE HON'BLE MR. RAMESH RANGANATHAN
WRIT PETITION NO. 31759 OF 1997

ORAL ORDER:

Questioning the imposition of punishment of dismissal from service, pursuant to the Departmental Enquiry, on the ground that the criminal case instituted for the very same charges was pending, before the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Medak, the present writ petition is filed.

While several submissions were made during the course of hearing, Sri C.Raghu, learned counsel for the petitioner, states that the petitioner does not seek an adjudication of the several contentions raised in view of the fact that he has, during the pendency of the writ proceedings, been acquitted in the Criminal Appeal by the Sessions Judge, Medak at Sangareddy. Learned counsel would request this court to permit the petitioner to avail such other remedies as are available to him in law, consequent upon his acquittal in the criminal appeal.

Leaving it open to the petitoner to avail such other remedies as are available to him, in law, the writ petition is dismissed. However, in the circumstances, without costs.
